Competition Overview:

Cheerleading will be a one-day competition. Awards will take place at the same location immediately following competition. Cheer teams are encouraged to cheer on the other sports throughout the weekend.

Sport Overview:

Cheerleading is a newer sport for Special Olympics. Special Olympics Washington introduced its first competition at the 2018 Winter State Games with only teams from the west side of that state competing. Cheerleading has since expanded with teams competing from the east side of the state as well.

Events offered for Cheerleading:

(Athletes may compete in individual performance or team competition)

- Team Cheer Routine (Traditional)
- Team Cheer Routine (Unified)
- Individual Skills
