In consideration of my application to participate in the voluntary activity/program at Pacific Lutheran University (PLU) identified above, I agree to the information below.

1. I understand that part of my experience at PLU may include athletic activity. Participation in these activities requires rigorous exercise under conditions which are sometimes dangerous. Injuries to the participant can occur in many foreseeable and unforeseeable ways. Injuries can occur as a result of: equipment failure, poor surface and/or field conditions, lack of proper supervision (by PLU or others) and the negligence of other participants (including but not limited to teammates, opponents, spectators, or officiating personnel). They can occur during periods of free time, strength development exercises, during practices or at athletic events themselves. Injuries can occur even if you, your teammates and opponents are physically fit and participating according to the rules of your chosen sport. They can also occur because you, your teammate or opponent is not physically fit or does not abide by the rules. Every type of injury could occur. This may include broken bones, ligament tears, back or brain damage, death or dismemberment.
2. By its nature, participation in the activity includes a risk of injury, which may range in severity from minor to those with long-term catastrophic effects. Participants can and have the responsibility to help reduce the chance of injury. I will obey all safety rules, reports all physical problems to coaches, follows proper conditioning programs, and inspects equipment daily. I further acknowledge concussions pose a particular risk. I will ensure that (1) I will report immediately to the University's coach or supervisor if I receive a blow to the head or body and experiences signs or symptoms of a concussion or brain injury; (2) I will report any delayed signs or symptoms to the University's coach or supervisor; (3) I will not return to play in a game or practice if I have received a blow to the head or body that results in concussion-like symptoms until I am cleared by a member of the University's staff.
3. I understand that part of my experience at PLU may include travel to or from event locations, overnight or daytime accommodations. These activities involve risk and the potential of injury. This can occur due to equipment failure, vehicle failure, accidents, facility malfunctions, negligent operation and/or supervision by an agent of PLU or a third party, or acts of others (including camp participants or non-participants). Every type of injury could occur. This may include broken bones, back or brain damage, death or dismemberment.
4. I wish to participate in the above activity scheduled at PLU. I am fully aware of the dangers and risks inherent in participating in the activity, including physical injury, death, or other consequences arising or resulting from the activity. I agree to accept full responsibility for such risks. I agree to accept responsibility for all implied risks and possible acts of negligence by other persons and/or agents of PLU. I further agree to advise activity planners of any physical or mental limitations I may have. I agree to be fully responsible for my own property and equipment related to this activity.
5. As a condition of my participation, I hereby grant PLU the right to use, for promotional purposes only, any photographs of me taken by PLU, its employees or agents, during my participation in the activity/program.
