Team Captains

Having an athlete serve as the captain for their team will help promote leadership amongst athletes and improve team training and competition between sporting teams. Captainship helps prepare athletes for other leadership opportunities such as coaching, mentoring, ambassadorship and volunteering.

Definition of a Team Captain- A team leader, either appointed or voted on, that is a member of a sports team. This person works to inspire teammates and help create a supportive community in every Special Olympics event they attend.

Potential Responsibilities:

- Leads team meetings
- Helps coach technique
- Athlete representative on team decisions
- Motivational/team cheer leader
- Obtains input from team
- Promotes leadership amongst teammates

Qualities of a Team Captain-

- Hard Worker
- Encouraging to others
- Trustworthy
- Respects others
- Passionate
- Communicates effectively

How are team captains identified?

Captains are usually identified through a team election process while coaches input may be required in some situations. Captains serve for the length of one season and each team should elect a new captain at the end of this term. Depending on team dynamics, there may be more than one captain per team.

“One of the main things [our captains] do is set up phone trees make calls to team members and families. They do a lot of communication for the program is a huge thing and saves us time. I use their help as much as I can.”

-Santee Brock, Head Coach, Ski Hawks

“I went to the coach and let them and know that we were independent and knew how to do things without our parents being present. So we helped with a lot of things like which accounting for athletes and valuable helping practice events.”

-Candace Madison, Team Captain North Sound Stars

Codes of Conduct

Coaches Code of Conduct

Special Olympics Washington is a non-profit organization that sponsors high quality physical fitness training and sports competitions for persons with intellectual disabilities. The primary purpose of this Code of Conduct is to establish a high standard of behavior for coaches to model as well as to ensure the safety and well-being of all athletes involved in training and competition. Coaches are expected to meet the following standards while participating in Special Olympics, whether in transit, during practice, at a competition, or in any associated social activity

1. Abide by the rules and policies of Special Olympics Washington.
2. Exhibit good sportsmanship and act as role models for Special Olympics Washington.
3. Refrain from and prohibit physical and verbal abuse, profanity and other inappropriate behavior.
4. Refrain from and prohibit the use of alcohol, illegal drugs, and controlled substances. (No smoking/tobacco use in restricted areas.)
