

University of Washington's Student Pediatric Integrative Clinical Experience SPICE 2017

SPICE Info

University of Washington Doctor of Physical Therapy Program offers monthly SPICE visits for children with motor delays February through May 2017.

Second-year Doctor of Physical Therapy students, with consultation if available from your child's treating therapist, will provide evaluation and intervention for your child under the direct supervision and guidance of a pediatric physical therapist.

Sign Up
by Jan 25,
2017

Location: University of Washington Medical Center

Frequency: Monthly visits for 1 hour on the following Mondays- 2/13, 2/27, 4/3, 4/17, 5/8.

Times: ~ 1:30 and 4 pm

Cost: FREE, Stipend provided for your participation. Parking costs will be reimbursed

Interested please email smisrael@uw.edu or call 206-598-0086

Parents must provide transportation for their child, to and from the UW clinic. Children will be seen for five 60-minute sessions. Early and late afternoon appointment times are available.

UW Pediatric PT course instructors will speak with families and treating therapists to ensure safety, collaboration, and appropriateness of clinic for their child.

